

Shallow Gas Gathering Systems

“Pictures to guide us as to why we are doing this... or a picture is worth a thousand words!!!”

“The Octopus”

“The as-built was in the welders head and he’s dead!”

“The Field Bend”

“Why didn’t the pig go through?”

“An Unsuccessful Attempt at Pigging”

“No wonder we weren’t seeing the gas volumes we should have been seeing!”

“The Underground Separator”

“So that’s what that riser in the middle of the field was for?”

“A Rock Runs Through It!”

“I’m sure they were throwing rocks back in the ditch to see who could make the loudest PING!”

“Saddle Up Pardners!”

“Yep, it looks like its isolated from the pile... sure it is... see the blade of grass there!”

“Difficult Situations call for Difficult Decisions!”

“We’re missin a flange and it’s an hour’s drive from the supplier...
let’s getter done!”
